

SERMON NOTES

Sermon: You Are Your Convictions

Text: Romans 8:39

Thesis: Big Dreams Require Deep Convictions.

I. The Heights Of Your Accomplishments Will Never Exceed The Depth Of Your Convictions.

- A. Don't underestimate the importance of a strong foundation.
- B. Big dreams require deep convictions.

II. You Are Your Convictions.

- A. Your convictions are the truest part of yourself.
- B. You will always become your convictions.

III. We Bank All Of Our Eternity On Our Convictions.

- A. Who do you want to become?
- B. Where do you choose to deposit your eternity?

Conclusion: Paul made a wise choice about where to deposit his eternity. It was made later in life, but he got it right. This the man who claimed to be the least among all the apostles. This one who claimed to be chief among sinners. But when he found Christ, he made a new set of convictions. He took all he had and deposited with Christ. He went all in, without reservation. I challenge you to look at your convictions and see what your return will be. If you don't like what you see then move your deposits and create a new set of convictions. You still have time.
