

SERMON NOTES

The Character Of Christ In Us I Corinthians 15:33 & 34
Thesis: We Are To Be Mirrors Of Christ.

I. Our Character Should Reflect His Love.

A. This should be the most noted of all characteristics among Christians.

B. It was love which seasoned the life of Jesus.

II. Our Character Should Reflect His Power.

A. We need to be more confident.

B. We need to be more diligent.

III. Our Character Should Reflect His Patience.

A. God's patience is fully documented.

B. We need to be sowing patience regularly.

Conclusion: God wants us to have good character. He doesn't want us to follow the example of the world, but to be an example of His response to others. When we're outside of His will, then we are sinning. So yes, He wants us to come to our senses. This is God's message to the Corinthian church, but also to all of us. May we truly be able developing the character of Christ in our daily lives.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We will be having Homecoming this year on October 4th, but it will look quite differently than years past. We will not be having our annual meal, but will worship, sing & fellowship with one another safely. Covid has changed how, but we won't let it steal the joy of worshipping together.

The list of jobs we do around this time of year will be on the table out front. Please consider helping us with these. This will help us to maintain keep our building looking great.
