SERMON OUTLINE

The Women In Jesus' Family Matthew 1:1 - 16

Thesis: God's Grace Is Highlighted By The Women.

I. Tamar Is The First Woman Mentioned In Jesus' Lineage.

- A. Her story may raise eyebrows a bit.
- B. She was determined to get what was promised.

II. Rahab Is The Next Woman Mentioned In Jesus' Lineage.

- A. She too had a passage about her baggage.
- B. The New Testament acknowledges her importance.

III. Ruth Is Then The Next Woman In Jesus' Lineage.

- A. She is known n for her love and dedication.
- B. And God did not forget Ruth.

IV. Bathsheba Is Now The Next Woman In Jesus' Lineage.

- A. She's not mentioned by name.
- B. God will use those involved with sin.

V. Mary Is The Final Woman Mentioned in Jesus' Lineage.

- A. Mary was a humble servant.
- B. She accepted her role with little hesitation.

Conclusion: So here they are: the five women listed in Jesus' genealogy. A woman whose past included a sordid sexual encounter with a relative; a gutsy Canaanite prostitute who believe in the true God; a poor but trusting widow from Moab; the beautiful wife of a soldier killed in battle whose relationship with her second husband began with a scandalous affair and pregnancy and a young virgin engaged to a small-town carpenter. These characters were humble, troubled and flawed. These stories are a tribute to the wisdom and the grace of God.
