SERMON

Sermon: Some Miracles Text: Ephesians 4:1 – 6

Thesis: Nothing Comes Instantaneously.

I. Some Miracles Take Tough Love.

- A. Many people only see the soft and mushy side of love.
- B. Sometimes, we need the tough side.

II. Some Miracles Take Time.

- A. Paul calls us to be patient here.
- B. The church in Ephesus were patient people.

III. Some Miracles Take Extra Effort.

- A. Sometimes it is necessary that we endure.
- B. Enduring without having all the answer takes amazing effort.

IV. Some Miracles Take Blood, Sweat And Tears.

- A. This is what “every effort” is.
- B. This church knew what sacrifice and effort was.

Conclusion: Miracles come when we make the effort to show God the faith, we have in Him. Having a life and environment where God can bring miracles in our lives regularly is an amazing thing. God is willing to do amazing things in and through us, but are we willing to do our part and exercise our faith? I believe the limits we see are only there because we have put limits of what we believe God is willing to do or can do. I want more for the church and for God’s people. What are you expecting today?
