

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are starting our new ministry effort at Mt. Pleasant as we reach out to the deaf & hard of hearing community. This opportunity came to our attention earlier this year as we discovered that there are no Christian Churches in the Greenville area that provide services for this community. We will have an ASL interpreter in the Worship Service to provide sign language for deaf & hard of hearing guests that have been invited. It is our hope that this ministry will start out small & grow over time. Please keep this ministry in your prayers. We pray that people who currently have no local option for meaningful worship will be led to a fulfilling worship here with us.

The K-5 student classes will be combined for the summer due to vacations.

CORN, CORN, CORN! The MPCC youth are selling sweet corn again this year! Corn is .50 cents per ear, and is estimated to be ready at the end of June. Pre-Orders are OPEN NOW! Use the QR code below to place your pre-order or sign up in the foyer. Update: The youth will begin picking and delivering orders on Monday (free delivery is available for orders of 100+ ears)! Pick up will be also available at the church or at a Greenville location. Get those orders in and share with your friends and family to support our youth. If you need help ordering, see a youth leader.

SERMON

Sermon: At The Burning Bush

Text: Exodus 3:5 & 6

Thesis: You May Be On Holy Ground.

I. God Still Uploads Desires.

- A. God openly shared with Moses.
- B. God wants His desire to be Moses' desire.

II. God Still Opens Doors.

- A. Moses saw the Israelites as a closed door.
- B. Moses saw Pharaoh as a closed door too.

III. God Still Inspires Dreams.

- A. All along Moses knew he was different.
- B. Dreams can be the plans to an amazing reality.

Conclusion: This piece of dessert would have looked like any other piece thereabouts. Nothing different or unique about it, but that God's presence was there in the burning bush. Friends, you never know when God is going to speak or where it will be. But on that occasion, you will be standing on holy ground. I pray that you and I will listen intently to what He wants to share with us.
