SERMON

Just Look Back As You Wait James 5:7-11

Thesis: Waiting For The Lord's Return Is Hard.

I. Look Back At Hosea.

A. Hosea had a unique experience in life.

B. Being faithful is not always easy.

II. Look Back At Daniel.

A. Daniel is a special man of God.

B. The struggles of Daniel were all related to his faithfulness to God.

III. Look Back At Jeremiah.

A. His message was not popular.

B. Jeremiah was persecuted for being truthful about the will of God.

IV. Look Back At Jonah.

A. James will mention Job by name.

B. Here's a man who refused to quit.

Conclusion: Jesus never sugar coated the truth about how His followers and disciples would be seen and viewed by the world. In Matthew 10:22 He said, "All men will hate you because of me, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved." The prophets believed God for this. The Twelves did too. The first century saints did as well. And since this time many others have trusted God with their everything. We have nothing to fear. God is good and He is faithful. Let's make this a vital part of our testimony.
