AVOIDING CHAPTER 11
I Kings 11:1-6
All Our Books Must Balance

I. Solomon's First Bad Choice Was He "loved many foreign women." (11:1)

A. He loved the wrong things.

B. He took his eye off the goal.

II. Solomon's Second Bad Choice Was He "turned his heart after other gods."[4] (11:4)

A. Be careful of where your heart goes.

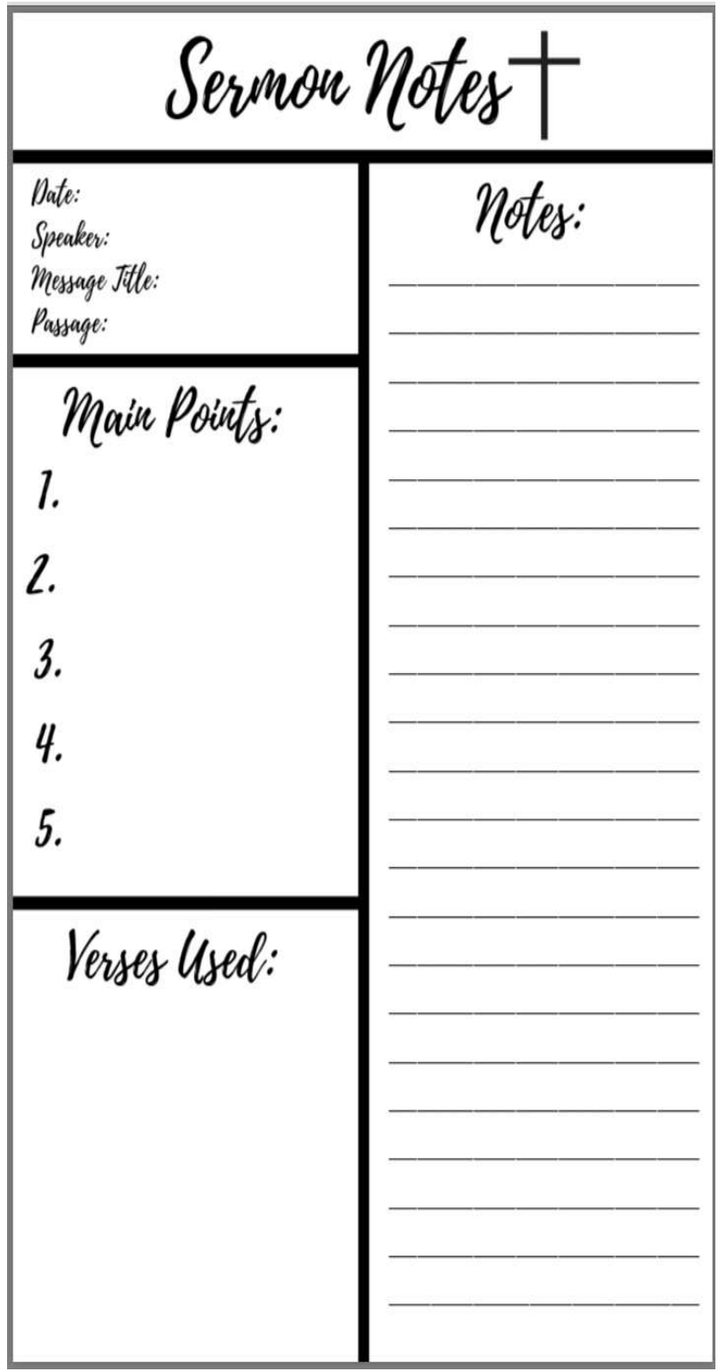

B. Nothing other than God can truly satisfy the longings of man's heart.

III. Solomon's Third Bad Choice Was "his heart was not fully devoted to the Lord his God."[6] (11:4)

A. He wasn't all in with God.

B. God will not share.

Conclusion: I Kings 11 is truly the story of one person's spiritual bankruptcy. One of the wealthiest and wisest men who ever lived made foolish and amateur mistake. These bad choices caused him to eventually lose it all. And the consequences were also passed to his family. The kingdom would never be the same, never as prominent, & never as influential. Let's learn from these bad choices and turn our lives around while we can. We can avoid chapter 11.
