SERMON

OVER THE LIMIT John 6:5-10

The Solution Is Closer Than You Think

I. The Apostles Counted The Hungry People.

A. There is so many.
B. There's nothing wrong with keeping count for God to receive the glory.

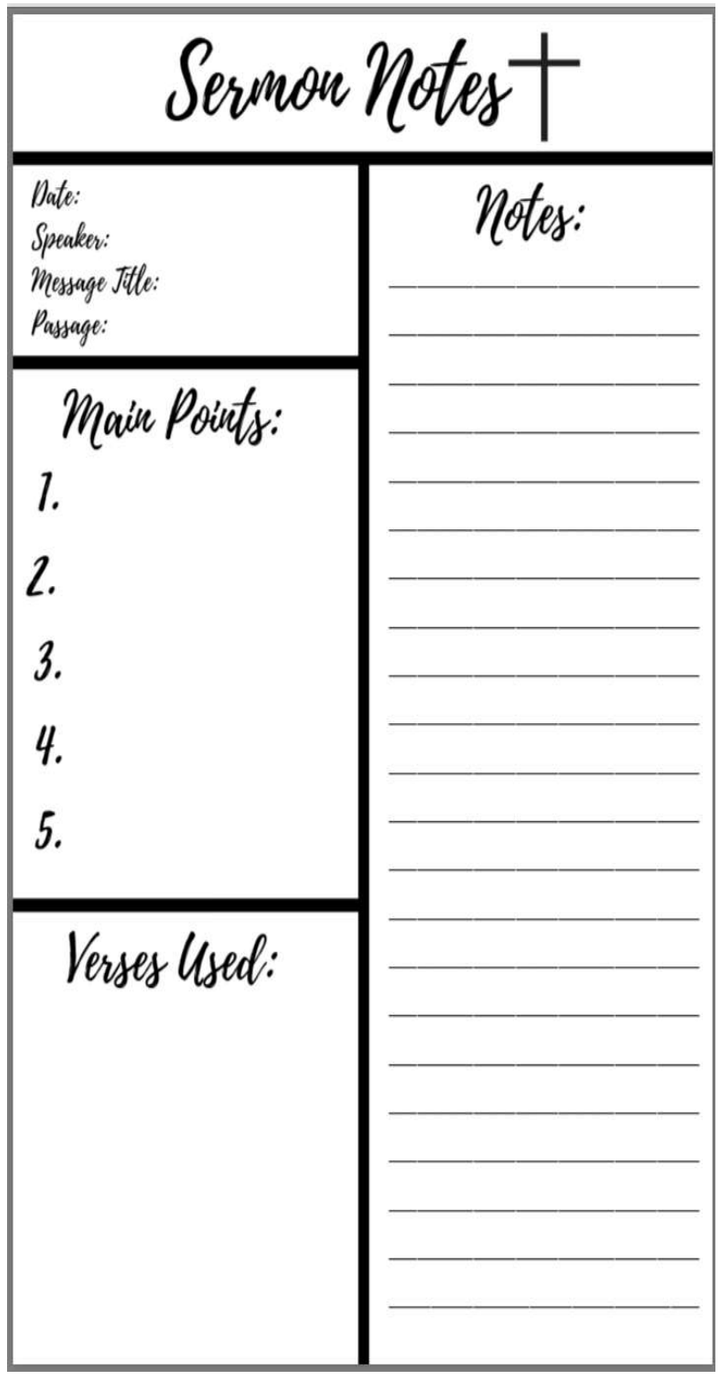

II. The Apostles Counted The Money In Their Bag.

A. Money should never be used as a limiting factor.
B. Money is no problem in fulfilling the will of God.

III. The Apostles Counted The Bread And Fish.

A. How we face the obstacles of life is often comical.
B. Food is not an issue for a great and loving God.

Conclusion: We will all have some "among so many" moments in our lives. Will they be seen as burdens or as opportunities? Jesus wasn't surprised by the size of the crowd or stressed by it. In fact, He had known or even orchestrated this test for the Twelve. And what does He do? He has the people sit down. He takes these five loaves and two fish, He gives thanks and distributes them. After all had eaten their fill, there were 12 baskets left over. There is nothing over the limit for God.
